What is MARM?

MARM means Multiagency Adult Risk Management.

Different organisations work together to help keep people safe. These organisations can include Adult Social Care, the police, fire and rescue service, housing services and other local organisations.

They all have a duty to help protect people from harm.

MARM helps organisations understand if someone may be at risk or harm. They work together with the person to understand the risks and make a plan to help keep people safe

Why have I been invited?

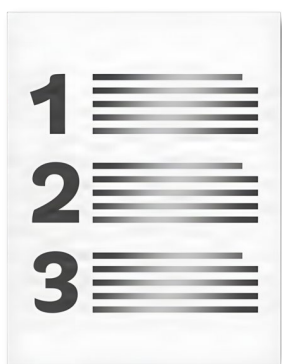

People are worried that you may be at risk.

The meeting is a chance to talk about these worries.

You can help agree what may make things safer for you and other people.

Which Organisations are worried?

Write the names of the organisations here.

Why do people think I am at risk?

Write the reasons why people are worried about your safety.

What could happen if nothing changes?

Write what people think could happen if the risks are not dealt with.

If you have questions

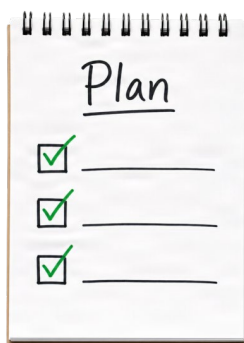

You can contact the MARM Chairperson.

They organise and lead the meeting.

Do I have to come?

No. You do not have to come to the meeting, but we would like you to come so you can tell us what you think and help make a plan to reduce the risks.

We will do our best to help you feel comfortable at the meeting.

You can have support

You can bring a family member, friend or someone else you trust.

You can also ask someone to speak for you.

What happens if I don't come?

If you do not come to the meeting, it will still take place. The organisations involved will talk about the risks and agree what should happen next.

We will keep you informed about any decisions.

If you are worried about coming to the meeting or have problems getting there, please tell the MARM Chairperson so they can help.

You can still share your views

If you ask someone to speak for you, they can share your views and help make a plan to keep you safe.

You can write down your views about the risks and what you would like to happen to help keep you safe.

You may be able to have an independent advocate

An independent advocate is not employed by the organisations at the meeting.

They can help you understand information and have your say.

Who will be at the meeting?

The Chairperson will lead the meeting.

Staff from different organisations will be there to talk about the worries.

A plan of action will be agreed at the end of the meeting.

The organisations at your meeting are:

How long will the meeting take?

The meeting should take:

Will my privacy be respected?

	Yes. We will keep your information private. Information about you will only be shared when it is needed to help keep you or other people safe. Everyone at the meeting must respect your privacy.
	Sometimes another organisation or company may help with your support. If this happens, they will only be given the information they need to help you

Keeping your information safe

	The organisations must keep your information safe and private. They must follow data protection law. If you are worried about how your information talk to the MARM Chairperson.
